S.B. CIVIL WRIT PETITION NO. 8711/2006

MADHVENDRA NARAYAN & ORS. Vs. UNION OF INDIA & ORS.

DATE: 03.08.2007.

HON'BLE MR. K.S. RATHORE, J.

Mr. Manoj Kumar Sharma for the petitioners.
Mr. Kunal Rawat for the respondents.

****

The respondents have taken decision that who have obtained 40% marks in written examination, will be eligible for oral interview and they have to secure 40% marks in oral interview also and if the petitioners secured aggregate 40% marks, then they will be entitled to undergo training.

The respondents undertake that they are allowing the persons who have secured aggregate 40% marks in written and oral examination/interview. It is also given out by the learned counsel for the respondents that a list of 364 candidates has been prepared by the respondents and the petitioners are eligible to undergo training as they secured more than 40% marks.

If the petitioners are eligible to undergo training, then they may be allowed to undergo training and they may be issued certificate if they declared pass in the training.

With these observations, the writ petition stands disposed of.
